Frequently Asked Questions

Why does Morgan Philips UK have a PSL?

Morgan Philips UK introduced a PSL to ensure that we only engage with reputable umbrella companies that can evidence strong compliant standards and who can offer the best service to our contractors.

I already have an existing contract with an umbrella company, can I continue to use them?

Morgan Philips UK will only engage with companies that have been vetted for inclusion on the PSL. All suppliers on the PSL have been fully vetted and selected based on strict assessment criteria.

I worked with a non-PSL umbrella company on my last assignment through Morgan Philips UK, can I use them again?

If the umbrella provider is not on our PSL we will be unable to engage with them. Should you opt to use an umbrella for your new assignment with Morgan Philips UK we would encourage you to review the companies on our PSL.

Can I set up my own Limited Company?

Yes, if you wish to set up your own Limited Company you are free to do so. However you must ensure that the Limited Company is incorporated and registered prior to the start of your contract and that all relevant insurances are in place from Day 1 of your assignment – Professional Indemnity, Public Liability and (only where applicable) Employers Liability. Setting yourself up in business can be a complex matter so we would encourage you to seek independent financial advice from an Accountant.

Can I opt to go PAYE direct with Morgan Philips UK?

Yes, if you wish to be paid on a PAYE basis via the Morgan Philips UK temp payroll you are free to do so. However you should be aware that once you start an assignment on a PAYE basis you will not be able to change to an Umbrella or Limited Company status part way through your contract.

What will my take home pay be with the umbrellas on the PSL?

Your take home pay will be dependent on your individual tax code and the amount of genuine business expenses you will incur whilst on an assignment. Each of the umbrella companies will be able to provide you with an individual illustration of what you can expect your take home pay to be so we would encourage you to contact them for further information.

Which company on your PSL would you recommend I use?

The decision as to which company you use will depend on your individual circumstances and requirements. We cannot recommend one company in particular, however we would encourage you to review and contact each provider to allow you to gain a greater understanding of the services they offer and how they can support you during an assignment.

The companies on the PSL do not offer the same high net take home pay as other umbrellas – can I use a company of my choice?

Take home pay should be broadly similar across all umbrella companies. A provider that offers high net retentions may not be operating in a compliant manner or may utilise undisclosed remuneration facilities to minimise tax. Morgan Philips UK do not engage with solutions that offer these types of arrangements and therefore we will only engage with umbrella companies that are transparent in their operations and who release payments under the PAYE scheme and in full compliance with UK tax legislation.

Who should I contact for more information?

Should you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact your Morgan Philips UK Consultant
